WRATHER PROBABLISTIES - For this sec-tion fair; colder toright; Thursday fair; fresh we terly winds

WEDDINGS A precty bome wedding consurred at 8:30 o'clock last night at 1718 Duke street, when Miss Bessie Watkits became the bride of Mr William M. King, formerly of this city, but more recently of Dauville. The ceremony was performed in the parlor, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallie, of occasion. Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallie, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, officiated. Only the immediate officiated. Only the immediate rel-atives of the contracting parties were present. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. King left for a southern bridal tour, and upon their return will reside in Danville, where the groom is em-

Another pretty wedding occurred at Another pretty wedding occurred at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Upper-ville, Fauquier county, when Miss Lillian Dooglas Lucilus, of that place, and Henry S. Glauner, of Lynchburg, were married. The ceremony was per-fermed in the parlor of the residence of the Iride, and was conducted by R v. I D. Lake, of the Baptist Church of that place. Mr. P. F. Downey, of this city, was best man, and Miss Mary Dunbar was maid of honor. After the caremony the couple left for a bridal tour, and upon their return will reside in Lynchburg, the home of THANKSGIVING SERVICE -The ministers representing the various Protes taut churches to the city, with the ex-ception of those of the Episcopal denomination, met yesterday morning at the parsonage of the Second Presbyterian parsonage of the Second Freebyterian Church and decided to hold united ser-vices on Thanksgiving Day in the morn-ing to the Methodist Protestant Church. It was also decided to sak Rev. Dr. George L. Hunt, of the First Baptist Church, to preach a sermon on that occasion. Rev. Dr. Hunt was not present at the meeting, but it is more than probable that he will accept the invitation. All of the ministers will take some part in the services. A special musical programme, it is said, will be arranged at a later date. Among the ministers present were Rev. Frank J. Brooke, of the Second Presbyterian Church; J. H. S. Ewell, of the Methodist Protes tast Church; Rev. E V Regester, of the Methodis Episcopal Church South, and Rev. J. A. Jeffers, of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church. The three Episcopal caurches will hold services on that day in their respective churches, The usual services will also be held in St. Mary's Church.

RAILROAD NOTES.—It is said that the Richmond, Frederick-burg and Potomic Bailroad Company, now operating the Washington Southern Rillway, contemplates putting on some Malway, contemplates putting on some local trains between this city and Washington at an early day. Toese will be run in addition to the present through trains on which local tickets are now sold. It is believed that numbers living in the western and northwestern sections of the city ton, will find these local trains con venient and that they will receive patronage which will justify the railroad company in operating them.

The telegraph and signal station of the Washington Southern Railway, now at the Fayette street depot, is to be removed to the yard of the company near the intersection of Wolfe and SHOT IN THE LEG.-When the south bound passenger train of the Southern Railway reached the depot in this city at 10:15 last night a white boy, about six een years o d, hobbled to the north east corner of Duke and Henry streets will recover.

and told some gentlemen who were standing there that he had been shot in his leg a few minutes before by one o the special policemen at the depot. The weapon had been loaded with snot-partridges and the wound was not serious. though painful. The boy said he wa-on his way from Buffalo where he had been employed during the exposition, and was going to Charleston, S. C. where he was to secure employment He further stated that he had secreted himself on the platform of one of the cars while the train was moving out or Washington. The youngster did not give his name and later imped away.

JE. O. U. A. M .- There will be organ ized to Jr. O. U. A. M. Hall on north Fairfax street this evening a past coun-cilor's association. Only past-officers of Alexandria and Belie Haven Councils will be admitted to membership. Such associations have been a wonderful help to the order in other chies. All past-officers are expected to be present and participate in this organization.
Alexandria Council, No. 33., will meet tomorrow evening at the hall on north Columbes street. Business of special importance to members of the council will be considered, and a large attendance is expected.

EXHAUSTED IN THE STREET -A colored boy giving his name as Benja-min Johnson was picked up in the arrest last night in an exhausted con-dition, being unable to walk. The boy said he was from Newberne, N. C., and had left that place with some men who had a number of borses in charge. He says they left him at Lynchburg and he made his way to Monroe, from which point he had tramped to Alexandria manifested in most colored boys of his sign and said he made his way to this city for the purpose of procuring employment.
